

Credits & Accreditation

Governance Education Credits (GECs)

Graduates of the GPC.D are required to complete a minimum of 36 Governance Education Credits (GECs) over 3 years in order to retain the designation. The 36 GECs represent the 3 year requirement, and will be counted from your effective date. Credits can be achieved as follows:

- 1 GEC per hour of attendance at GPC events, conferences, seminars, workshops, chapter events, formal education programs
- 3 GECs per hour of Presenting/Facilitating on governance topics (including the preparation of all presented material)
- 2 GECs per hour as Session Moderator in a governance related debate or discussion
- 1 GEC per hour as Session Panelist

Professional Accreditation

Each program may be eligible for provincial Law Society's CPD Requirement as Substantive Hours. Registrants may be able to complete substantive hours, CPD hours, ethic hours, professionalism content. Upon approval, GPC will indicate the hours and accreditation content per Law Society.

On-Demand Learning

If you've missed a live GPC professional development session, are looking for a refresher, or are in need of learning credits, we now have GPC webinars available online. Sessions vary in focus and learning length, but each offer valuable content and takeaways for your role as a governance professional.

Session Title	Runtime
#MeTooChanges: The New Workplace Reality and the Role of the Board (Toronto Chapter)	2 hours
Strategy & Business Planning Boot Camp for the Governance Professional	Full Day
Subsidiary Governance - A Critical Tool for Risk Governance	Full Day
Impacts of Cannabis in the Workplace: Are You Ready?	1.5 hours
Organizational Culture and the Role of the Board	1 hour
Cybersecurity Preparedness	1.5 hours
Meetings, Minutes and Running Effective Board Meetings (Toronto)	4 hours

Customized Content

All of GPC's learning opportunities enhance the skills and current practices of the governance professional. However, the content and learning is often required for more than one individual – your full board or organization's team. In this instance, GPC offers private, customized workshops tailored to your learning requirements and group knowledge. Any of the presented sessions can be provided one-on-one. We also offer training and workshops on specific topics and issues. Contact events@gpcanada.org for more details on this educational opportunity.
